

Our responsibility to the region

Monday, 13th February 2012

The Raiffeisenbank Lech actively supports local clubs, associations and events.

Founded as a cooperative bank more than 100 years ago, the Raiffeisenbank Lech assumed a responsibility towards the region from the very beginning – and today more than ever it continues to do so. Our goal is to develop and boost the local economy and local community in the immediate vicinity. In concrete terms this can be seen in our active support of businesses and associations in Lech and Warth, and in the active contribution to our community on the part of our employees.

In contrast to many other banks, we see sponsoring as a much more complex commitment. We sponsor clubs and associations not only in a financial sense, but also through active work and collaboration, and by providing suitable premises. This, in turn, results in close affiliations which provide us with a strong sense of fulfilment.

Weather

Beautiful winter weather is forecast for the upcoming weekend, though the temperatures will be icy cold. In the mountains the sun will shine brightly, though, as a strong easterly wind will massively strengthen the cold, we will need warm clothes. In the valleys low stratus will mix with the sunshine, however, the conditions will become more sunny during the course of the weekend. We are looking forward to a nice, but very cold winter weekend. So enjoy the sunny spells, because next week the conditions will change. More variable and unsettled north-westerly weather is expected.
